Date: July 31-August 2, 2008
Time: 09:00-18:30
Organizer: Ecumenical Advocacy Alliance
Event Name: Ecumenical Pre-Conference

A three-day Ecumenical Pre-Conference will be held in the Hotel Gran Meliá Reforma in Mexico City. More than 500 Christians from all over the world will participate in plenary sessions, skills building workshops, and daily worship during the Pre-Conference. The Ecumenical Pre-Conference 2008 theme is "Faith in Action Now!" The Pre-Conference will engage participants in exploring the challenges posed by the HIV and AIDS pandemic to people of faith, evaluating actions taken, and the planning of strategies still required to put the Gospel into action in the Christian response to HIV and AIDS.

Date: July 31-August 2, 2008
Time: 09:00-17:30
Organizer: Mexico Youth Force, c/o Global Youth Coalition on HIV/AIDS
Event Name: Mexico Youth Force Pre-Conference

In order to promote and strengthen young delegates' meaningful participation within AIDS 2008, the Mexico Youth Force is coordinating a three day Pre-Conference, from July 31st through August 2nd, for approximately 250 young HIV/AIDS activists who are registered for AIDS 2008. The pre-conference will consist of informative and skills-building workshops around HIV/AIDS issues, ranging from scientific knowledge to effective political advocacy. Participants will also gain skills in research methodology, harm reduction and details on treatment. Participants will learn how to advocate to policymakers on issues relevant to young people and how to deliver the Youth Force's advocacy messages at the conference and beyond. The pre-conference has two main objectives. The first one is to provide technical information and capacity building on the political, scientific, economic and social context of HIV/AIDS to young people (ages 16 to 26) so they can effectively participate in the five tracks of the XVII International AIDS Conference. The second objective is to empower young people through information, advocacy, and relationship-building to be advocates for youth and for an end to HIV and AIDS at the main conference, in their home countries and internationally.

Organizer: Colegio Nacional de Enfermeras A.C.
Event Name: Pre-conference of International Nurses in HIV/AIDS

The Pre-conference of Nurses in HIV/AIDS is a forum for exchanging knowledge and experiences with national and international experts.

The pre-conference will assess the progress made and challenges ahead with the objective of finding ways to improve the quality of care and attention for people living with HIV/AIDS. In addition, the 1st Meeting of Nurse Researchers on HIV/AIDS will be a space to present and discuss new proposals so that the nursing community worldwide can join forces to strengthen prevention and care, eliminate stigmas, and defend the human rights of people living with HIV/AIDS and their families.

It is also intended to train research networks and establish alliances and agreements between professionals and organizations. The event will consist of lectures, discussion panels, and the presentation of research. Research papers and posters will be presented with question and answer sessions. The topics discussed at the conference will focus on the care, attention, humanism, respect for human rights, social and economic impact, and presentations on methodologies for the implementation of specific models of nursing research at the international level for the prevention, detection, and control and monitoring of HIV/AIDS.

Date: August 1st-2nd 2008
Time: 08:30-17:30
Organizer: The Teresa Group
Event Name: Children and HIV/AIDS: Action Now, Action How

The symposium will provide a two-day forum for information sharing, collaboration and networking in order to strengthen the response to children's needs. It will present new findings, such as those collected by the Joint Learning Initiative on Children and HIV/AIDS. It will bring together service providers, donors, researchers, advocates and policy leaders working within affected communities and on national, regional and global platforms. And, it will increase opportunities for stronger linkages between programme design and implementation, policy, research, and advocacy efforts, while never forgetting that the most effective, responsive and far-reaching interventions are led by front-line organizations in collaboration with national governments.

This 2-day think-tank and networking opportunity is for anyone working on issues related to children and HIV/AIDS and who is concerned about how to improve national responses at all levels of society. The topics and discussions raised here will resonate in the subsequent International AIDS Conference, where they will be championed in a plenary speech on children and HIV/AIDS given by Professor Linda Richter.

The symposium is being organized by The Teresa Group in partnership with the Coalition on Children Affected by AIDS and le Casa de la Sal.

Organizer: INERELA (International Network of Religious Leaders Living with or Personally Affected By HIV)
Event Name: Positive Faith Confronting HIV- Launch Celebration of INERELA

INERELA+ seeks to address the HIV pandemic through its multi-faith network which exists to equip, empower and engage religious leaders living with or personally affected by HIV and AIDS to live positively and openly as agents of hope and change in their faith communities and countries. INERELA + members respond to the pandemic in a positive way that breaks silence, challenges stigma and empowers them to utilize their faith communities in the delivery of evidenced-based prevention, care and treatment services. It plans to establish more regional and national programmes to provide a framework within which training can be provided and through which advocacy and action can be coordinated. In 2008, initial contact with religious leaders from across North and South America will be solidified to form INERELA+ Americas. Particular attention will be paid on working with leaders from the region's indigenous and African diasporic religions and cultures. To this end, INERELA+ will take advantage of the International AIDS Conference being held in Latin America for the first time, to announce and celebrate its global launch including its Americas program.

Meeting in Spanish with simultaneous translation to English
Event Name: V Meeting of First Ladies and Women Leaders in Latin American on Women and AIDS

The Coalition of First Ladies and Women Leaders of Latin America on Women and AIDS was established in New York on June 2nd, 2006, during the parallel meeting of the XXVI Special Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, on the initiative of Xiomara Castro de Zelaya, First Lady of Honduras and supported by UNAIDS and UNFPA. This is a unique alliance among women in key decision making positions and representatives of the International Community of Women Living with HIV/AIDS (ICW/Latina) committed to implementing a Regional Platform of Action.

The Mexican President's spouse and First Ladies from Latin America have joined the coalition. Other members include ministers, parliamentarians, civil society leaders, NGOs, and international cooperation agencies.

The nature of the Coalition - strong leadership of women including women living with HIV (WLH), moved the coalition beyond its expectations, gathering more than 150 members with the power to shape policy at the regional and national levels. The coalition met four times in less than two years with support from the Regional Directors Group of the UN and local governments.

The Coalition aims to mobilize political and financial support for Universal Access and propose concrete strategies to address the growing feminization of the epidemic in Latin America. Results achieved include increased recognition of the feminization of the epidemic in Latin America, increased regional and national support for initiatives of WLH, action plans to halt the feminization of the epidemic, and the promotion of local agreements between ICW and women leaders.

The V Coalition Meeting, with an expected 200 high level participants, will hold a technical meeting on August 1st. A reference document will define feasible and achievable goals for the effective prevention of HIV and the impact of HIV/AIDS on women living with HIV.

Organizer: Fogarty International Center, National Institutes of Health, USA
Event Name: Fogarty International Center Meeting

Fogarty International Center (FIC) is planning a meeting in conjunction with AIDS 2008 in Mexico City in celebration of the 40th Anniversary of FIC and the 20th Birthday of AIDS International Training and Research Programme (AITRP). We would like to use the opportunity of the meeting to highlight the capacity building efforts for research in low- and middle-income countries accomplished through the AITRP as the oldest research training programme and the model for the FIC research training programmes that followed, including the International Clinical, Operations and Health Services Research Training Award for AIDS and TB (ICOHRTA AIDS TB). The meeting will center on 3-4 panels composed of current and former trainees who are nominated by their research training programme directors as "stars." We are particularly interested in those who have abstracts that have been accepted to be presented as posters or oral presentations at AIDS 2008 conference. The panels will not be used for them to present their scientific findings, but to highlight how the FIC-supported training fostered their development as scientists.

Organizer: International Center for Research on Women
Event Name: Women in HIV Trials: Building Bridges in Clinical and Social Science Research

Social science analyses are crucial to ensuring that HIV clinical trials more adequately meet the needs of women and adolescent girls. During this session, we will hear from leading researchers on their experiences with prevention and treatment trials, the challenges they faced and the solutions they have found toward integrating women into HIV trials. Through small group discussions, attendees will join the guest speakers to develop action points on how to bridge the social and clinical sciences toward improving clinical trials.

Event Name: Interfaith Service

The Christian Host Committee, Ecumenical Advocacy Alliance and the Ecumenical Pre-Conference invites delegates, observers and the general public to participate in an Interfaith Service. The service will offer prayers and meditation in different traditions. We gather to encourage each other to place the International AIDS Conference and our lives in the wider context of compassion to which all people of faith aspire. For a moment we will meditate in our own way, surrounded by others praying using their traditions. Together we will plead for solutions beyond what we see and for courage to enact the possible but unfulfilled. We will listen to music which comforts and beckons. Remembering who we are, we will encounter what we are called to do in the midst of the AIDS pandemic.

Organizer: Bike Rider's Foundation, Canada.
Event Name: AIDS Ride 2008, Toronto to Mexico City

AIDS RIDE 2008 is a bike ride across North America connecting the 2 biggest AIDS conferences, AIDS 2006 Toronto and AIDS 2008 Mexico City. In light of the continuing battle against the spread of HIV/AIDS, a pandemic that is devastating our global community, AIDS RIDE 2008 seeks to achieve three main objectives: bridge the gap between International AIDS Conferences such as Toronto 2006 and Mexico 2008 by facilitating HIV/AIDS awareness in North American communities and in doing so, mobilize youth and adult allies to pave the way for greater involvement in AIDS RIDE 2008 and AIDS 2008; break stigma and discrimination against PLWHAs by involving PLWHAs in the organization and implementation of the ride and show communities throughout North America that PLWHAs are healthy and strong people who will hold leaders accountable at the IAC; and raise funds for organizing partners of this initiative and use the same for the collaborative work against HIV/AIDS in poor and developing nations that needs immediate assistance.

Event Location: The AIDS RIDE 2008 will hit the road starting at the Metro Toronto Convention Center and end at the Centro Banamex in Mexico City covering different cities across the North America like New York, Philadelphia, Washington D.C., Cincinnati, Nashville, Memphis, Little Rock, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, Monterrey and Ciudad Victoria. Conference Programme Overview	Date: August 7, 2008 Time: 07:00-8:30 Organizer: A coalition of HIV and human rights organizations, led by the Open Society Institute Public Health Programme (Law and Health Initiative)
Week-long Events	Event Name: March and Rally for Human Rights and HIV/AIDS: Now More Than Ever!
Sunday	Universal access to HIV prevention, treatment, care and support will never be achieved without human rights. Now more than ever, human rights should therefore occupy the center of the global struggle against HIV. To express support for human rights for people living with HIV or AIDS and for members of most-at-risk populations, and for vastly greater attention to human rights in the response to HIV, a march and rally for human rights and HIV/AIDS will be held. Participants will gather between 07:15 and 07:30am at a 15-minutes walking distance from the conference centre, and march to the conference centre, where a human rights rally will be held from 8:00-8:30am, including keynote addresses by Mary Robinson (Executive Director of the Ethical Globalization Initiative and former United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and President of Ireland), Mark Heywood, Head of the AIDS Law Project, South Africa; and Peter Piot, UNAIDS Executive Director (tbc). During the rally, a copy of the declaration "HIV/AIDS and human rights: Now more than ever", endorsed by over 300 organizations worldwide (as of 25 May), will be presented to high-level officials.

Date: August 4-9, 2008
Time: 20:30-22:00 ES
Organizer: Caracol de Plata A.C.
Event Name: Traveling Exhibition – Caracol de Plata University Recognition

The Caracol de Plata University Recognition Programme aims to encourage young people to take part in creating solutions for social problems in Latin America. The University Contest, which began in 2004, asks university students to develop media messages for a specific social subject-matter. The University Recognition Programme includes university students from all over Latin America and awards students who produce the best media messages.

In 2007 the topic was "The Prevention and Combat of AIDS." Caracol de Plata, the sponsoring institution, received 680 poster submissions from 75 universities in 16 Latin American countries. A traveling exhibition will display the work of the semifinalists in the poster category.

The purpose of this exhibition is to sensitize viewers to the issues that surround HIV/AIDS and the barriers to prevention such as stigma and discrimination. The messages conveyed in these posters assist viewers in developing awareness to the issue and adopting behaviors to fight the pandemic. Additionally, the poster exhibit suggests how important communication is to mitigating the problems that society faces as well as instigating action. This exhibition will represent diverse countries in the Latin American region and thus give insight to the particular views of the representing nations and simultaneously a global view.
